3rd September 2018

Dear Parents / Caregivers

HOUSE EVENT: BOOK CHARACTER DRESS UP

The house event for Term 3 is a book character dress up day. Each learning team will be holding their own book character dress up day and events around this in week 10. Please note dressing up is optional. We ask that coloured hair spray and face paint is limited on this day. If your child does not want to come to school dressed as a character from a book, they will need to wear school uniform.

Pihinga - Pihinga are having their book character dress up day on Wednesday 26th September. Students are encouraged to dress as their favourite character and bring along the book that their character is from to share with their class.

Tipu - Tipu are having their book character dress up day on Monday 24th September. Students will participate in a book quiz to earn points for their house, and they are encouraged to dress as their favourite character. Tipu will join with Mahuri and have a book character parade in the afternoon.

On Tuesday we invite children to bring in a pillow and soft toy, with their favourite book and we will share our books with buddy classes. During the week the children will be publishing one of their own stories into a book form, and throughout the week the Tipu Teachers will visit other home rooms to share their favourite book.

Mahuri - Mahuri are having a book week from Monday 24th to Friday 28th September. They will spend the week celebrating books and reading. Their book character dress up day is on Monday 24th September. Students are encouraged to dress as their favourite character. Students will participate in a book quiz to earn points for their house. Mahuri will join with Tipu and have a book character parade in the afternoon.

More information for Mahuri whanau will follow regarding the other activities planned.

Tūrepo - Tūrepo are having their book character dress up day on Friday 28th September. Students are encouraged to dress as their favourite character. Students will participate in a book quiz to earn points for their house.

Thank you for your support.
